

DONGARA

Wednesday 21 September 11.00 am

Cost $ 20 members $ 50 Non Members

Starting at Craig Forsyth’s farm, Milo Rd, Irwin

- “Welcome and celebration of 10 years of Evergreen Farming” Bob Wilson
- “The blood, sweat and tears of farming systems change” Tim Wiley
- “The Carbon Farming Initiative – what’s in it for me?” Tim Wiley
- “Perennials in WA - we’ve come a long way in a short time, but where to next?” Phil Barrett-Lennard

Lunch

Paddock 1: Meat production per hectare from perennials and annuals

- “Double your production with perennials” Craig Forsyth

Paddock 2: Tagasaste sown with a Triticale crop inter-row

Paddock 3: Pasture Cropping – oats vs wheat vs triticale sown over perennial grasses

- “Is Pasture Cropping just a grazier’s diesel fix or a valid way to improve profitability from perennial pastures?” Phil Barrett-Lennard

Travel to Keith Tunney’s farm

Paddock 1: Blue Lupins removed from a perennial pasture paddock

- “Why are Paterson’s Curse and Blue Lupins killing cows?” Matt Carrick
- “Is Signal Grass the cause of photosensitivity in perennials?” Geoff Moore

Paddock 2: Serradella drilled into perennial grasses

- “Where will my nitrogen come from if I kill my Blue Lupins?” Brad Nutt

Paddock 3: Pasture Cropping: oats vs lupins sown over perennial grasses

Close and please join the committee and guests for drinks

RSVP Vicki@evergreen.asn.au or 62724545.

